Q: Saving form values in an array before submitting to database So I'm trying to make an autocomplete function with jQuery, and I want to store the values of each field in an array before submitting to the database. The idea is that when the user types the first letter, the form will preselect some suggestions. So here is my code so far: (function($) { $.fn.autocomplete = function(url) { var cache = {}; this.bind('keypress', function(event) { var key = event.keyCode || event.charCode; if (key !== 8 && key !== 9 && key !== 27) { this.data('autocomplete').disable(); return; 570a42141b
