On Unix-like operating systems, you can install the Perl interpreter by running `sudo apt-get install libwww-perl` You can find a list of installed Perl modules with `perl -e 'print for @INC'` If you use Linux, there are different ways to install Perl. Another method is to install a package manager like `apt-get` on Debian-based systems like Ubuntu or `apt` on Red Hat-based systems like Fedora. If you use Windows, you can install perl from a shell prompt by entering `perl -mCPAN -e 'install Win32'` This does not only install the basic libraries like perl, but also the CPAN module manager (CPAN module CPANPLUS is available) and the perlwin module (Win32 module). P.S:- I wasn't able to find a link for the download link. Is there any other way I can download the file? EDIT:- Is it really possible to download the file via through the list of users? A: I don't think so.. I have created a file with few friends using your name and now I'm getting the same access denied for the file i can't open. I am using one of the online chatting services.. but when i uploaded the file it got detected.. but when i click on it.. I wasn't able to open it. Moreover.. it seems that many people are trying to access the file.. but i doubt if that will happen from the list of users.. So I have tried to download the file from the site... . That's the only way I could download it.. I have discussed the issue with the site admin.. I have given him a valid reason that this might happen if his file got detected by many.. but he refused to listen.. I have to request the admin to change the access level for that file.. since my friends are struggling to access it and even the admin is giving them an access denied error.. Plot In the town of Independence, Indiana, movie-making Buddy Lester plays the "king of movies" - the star of every one of the town's major events and annually crowned at a Hollywood-style awards ceremony. His latest film, a Western, is panned by critics but his fans are so loyal that they continue to attend his shows. Soon Buddy is to make another movie, a "Merry-Go-Round" which is considered by the locals to be Buddy's "bastardized musical". The movie is a satire on the American musical theatre, starring Alvin Childress as a star performer with an over-exuberant stage personality who constantly impersonates other celebrities to the consternation of a team of stage directors. The movie's team of directors are Hoss, Galo, Dick and Hank, the "Heads" of the "Heads gang". One of the film's writers, Fletcher is Buddy's agent, but a jealous Gus.
